

6 STEPS FOR A GOOD CONFESSION

1. Examine your conscience – (go through commandments below) what sins have you committed since your last good confession.
2. Be sincerely sorry for your sins.
3. Begin with, “Bless me Father, for I have sinned. It has been —(weeks, mos. Years) since my last confession. My sins are: — .
4. Confess all your mortal sins and any venial sins to the priest. Finish with, “I am sorry for these sins and any sins I may have forgotten.”
5. After your confession, the priest will give you a penance and ask you to recite the Act of Contrition. Following that the priest will give you absolution for your sins.
6. After leaving the confessional, do the penance the priest gives to you.

Pray daily for the strength to avoid the occasion of sin, especially for those sins you were just absolved from.

ACT OF CONTRITION

O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended You, and I detest all my sins because I dread the loss of Heaven and the pains of Hell, but most of all because they offend You, my God, Who are all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve, with the help of Your grace, to confess my sins, to do penance, and to amend my life.
Amen.

"No fornicators, idolaters, or adulterers, no sodomites,... will inherit the kingdom of God." "Whoever eats the bread and drinks the cup of the Lord unworthily sins against the Body and Blood of the Lord. ... He who eats and drinks judgement on himself." (1 Cor 11:27-29) So, to receive Holy Communion while in the state of mortal sin (having committed a mortal sin which has not been confessed and forgiven in the Sacrament of Confession) is itself a mortal sin - a mortal sin of sacrilege.

The Sacrament of Penance is one of the best sacraments because we encounter the love and mercy of Jesus. It does not matter how long it has been or what your sins are. The important thing is to receive Jesus' forgiveness in our lives.
